

School Chaplaincy

Araluen Christian College - Alice Springs

Do you love working with children and young people?

Are looking for a career filled with meaning and purpose?

School chaplains support the holistic wellbeing of our school communities across Australia. Through one-on-one support, running small groups and connecting with staff, students and families, school chaplains make a difference!

*Apply
Now*

For more information contact:
Taylor Ossevoort, Area Manager Northern Territory
taylor.ossevoort@su.org.au

Now hiring

Chaplain - Araluen Christian College

This position is 15.2 hours (2 days) per week.

Ideal start date will be Term 2, 2025 (19/05/2025)

NT

Please note there are minimum qualifications to being a Chaplain. You can view these requirements and find out more information about SU Chaplaincy in NT by visiting our website.

Please note there are minimum qualifications required to be a Chaplain. You can view these requirements here. An opportunity for a Department of Education qualification waiver may apply in certain areas. We are able to offer a fixed-term contract to successful candidates until the conditions of the waiver have been met.

When applying for this position, please have the following documents ready to upload:

- Right to work documents such as Australian or New Zealand birth certificate or passport; Australian Citizenship Certificate; Certificate of evidence of resident status; Copy of valid visa with work rights
- A copy of your current Working with Children (WWC) with details and;
- Proof of your current relevant qualifications including academic transcripts
- It is recommended that you have these documents available for upload before commencing your application.

To submit an application please visit - <https://apply.chappy.org.au/job-details/query/chaplain-araluen-christian-college/in/australia/9534655/>